TO: The Registrar considering Uncle Robbie Thorpe v The Honourable Mark Dreyfus.

Please find attached a letter on behalf of The Honourable Mark Dreyfus received 50 minutes ago,

His refusal to respect my request as an Elder to be addressed as Uncle Robbie Thorpe and to refer to these proceedings as Uncle Robbie Thorpe v The Honourable Mark Dreyfus demonstrates why these proceedings should be filed and served forthwith.

Please note my request and reasons and sources cited in my statement of claim and in my orders sought in the Originating Application.

It is clear that unless so ordered The Honourable Mark Dreyfus will not comply with this request nor respect Our Law even at this most basic level especially during the 29th National Reconciliation Week.

Thanks,

Uncle Robbie Thorpe

I refer to the hearing at 10.30am this morning before the Honourable Justice Richards in the Supreme Court of Victoria, Uncle Robbie Thorpe v MCV and AG, SECI202401011, Livestream link: <https://vimeo.com/event/4441998>.

I attach a sealed copy of my affidavit in those proceedings filed and served on 17 July 2024 exhibiting all documents both filed and submitted for filing in the proceedings in the Federal Court of Australia, VID589/2024.

1. Can the Court provide an update this morning before 10.30am please on the delay in issuing the two summons and on what date, if any, the two interlocutory summons (lodged 12 July 2024 and 15 July 2024) are returnable?
2. What is the Court's procedure for seeking a formal order that interlocutory applications be issued and made returnable?
