Duty Judge and after hours contacts are available at <https://www.fedcourt.gov.au/contact/urgent-duty-contact>

If your email is in relation to a matter before a Judge or Registrar within the next 48hrs, please include in the subject line:

Urgent – Next Court Date (eg: Listing 2 July 2024) – Matter number – Matter Name

Federal Law Search:

If you wish to search for information on a matter, upcoming listings, court events, orders, and documents filed, this can be conducted through the Commonwealth Courts Portal which can be found at <https://www.comcourts.gov.au/public/esearch/>. Please note that not all application types are available on eSearch.

Advice from Court Staff:

Court staff cannot provide legal advice or tell you whether or not you should bring your case to Court. Information about advice registry staff can and cannot provide can be found at <https://www.fedcourt.gov.au/services/registry-services>

We strongly advise you to seek legal advice before commencing a proceeding or appearing as an unrepresented respondent in a proceeding brought by someone else.

Your responsibilities

While registry staff can check your forms and other court papers for completeness (for example, we check for signatures, and that attachments are present and signed by an authorised person within your State or Territory), it is ultimately your responsibility to ensure that your forms and court papers comply with the Court rules and practice.

You are required to comply with any order or direction of the Court.
