

Click here to go to earlier update in Evidence 11, 29.12.23, at pages 39-40 to see a copy of the the begging letter emailed on Christmas Day '23 to solicitors for Windsors, UK, Australia and Vic as referred to by Robbie below.

Click here to go to Evidence 12, 5.1.24, at page 6 to see auto-reply from the Windsor crime family law firm which at least proves Windsor legal representative has got Rob's letter.

The solicitor for the legal entity "Commonwealth of Australia" misses the point in his reply this week but at least confirms the national government legal representative has got Rob's letter!

Dear Mr Thorpe

We refer to your enclosed correspondence received on 18 January 2024.

AGS provides legal services to the Commonwealth and related bodies, and does not administer any legal financial assistance schemes.

The Attorney-General's department administers a range of legal financial assistance schemes and information relating to these schemes can be found at Commonwealth legal financial assistance | Attorney-General's Department \(ag.gov.au\)). There is also a range of other legal assistance providers, and information regarding these providers can be found at Legal assistance services | Attorney-General's Department \(ag.gov.au\)).

Kind regards

Sonali Rajanayagam
