Dear Robert Thorpe

Your document/s have been accepted for filing.

Please click here to access sealed copies of your document/s.

Please also note any reviewer comments, below.

Service of court documents

If your court documents are to be served on another party, you must download a sealed copy of the documents from RedCrest. Documents must then be served in accordance with an Order of the Court or the relevant Rules. The rules of service differ depending on the type of matter (eg civil, criminal). If you are uncertain about how to serve the documents, click here to view the relevant rules.

Requests to search a court file or record

If you have submitted a request for a litigation search, the results will be emailed to you.

If you have requested to search a court file and the proceeding number contains an 'E' (referring to 'Electronic'), documents approved for search will be emailed to you. If the proceeding number does not contain an 'E', this means that the Supreme Court of Victoria maintains a paper file for this proceeding. Please see reviewer comments below advising how documents on these files may be inspected.

Reviewer Comments (if applicable)

An email will follow with instructions for next steps.

Access to electronic court files by parties

Parties to a proceeding may request enhanced case access to electronic court files, which are those proceedings that contain an 'E' (referring to 'Electronic').

Please ask the Case Manager to email redcrest@supcourt.vic.gov.au, informing the Court that they approve the granting of enhanced case access to you. The Case Manager is the person responsible for the proceeding whose details appear in the 'tram tracks' on the initiating or first responding document filed in the proceeding.

Please note, this does not apply to requests for access to criminal files.

Yours sincerely,

Supreme Court of Victoria
